LIVING IN ITALY USEFUL DOCUMENTS:
IL CODICE FISCALE/TAX CODE

CHE COS’È/WHAT’S IT?
The tax code is used for identification of the citizen in the Italian territory in relations with the authorities and public administrations. The only valid is the one issued by a special office: Agenzia delle Entrate. You need it for the contract of the house and for a job in order to pay and to be paid.

INFORMAZIONI UTILI/USEFUL INFORMATION
The Italian and European citizens without the tax code has to go to the local Revenue Office (Agenzia delle Entrate) with a valid identity document and instantly they can obtain the tax code.

For non-EU citizens (including Turkish students): for non-European citizens taking application for entry into the Italian territory for immigration, study, family reunification and for subordinate work (RESIDENCE PERMIT), the tax code is performed through the electronic system of connection with the tax Registry. Central Police Offices (Questure), via electronic connection with the Tax Registry, give the tax code to the foreigner citizens and require the issuance / renewal of the residence permit (at the time of the appointment at the Central Police Office to get the Permission of stay, the non-UE citizen receives the certificate of attribution of the tax code).
